

Progress Marks Start Of Austria Pact Talks

E. European States To Meet on May 11

HONG KONG, Monday (Reuters). — Russia and other East European states are to meet in Warsaw on May 11 to discuss questions arising from last November's Moscow conference, at which it was decided to establish a combined military command.

This was announced today by Peking's New China News.

It would be sending an observer to the conference.

It said the Warsaw conference had been prompted by ratification of the Locarno pact, under which the Western powers have agreed to the disarmament of West Germany.

Four Swedish Jets
Crash in Death Dive

STOCKHOLM, Monday (UP).—Four Swedish jets crashed in a death dive

The four planes—pride of the Western world's third highest flying formation (the U.S. and Britain) crashed in quick succession through the ice of Bittern Lake in the midst of the vast Kuskokwim forest.

As the German planes cleared whether the plane was playing follow-the-leader and plummeted into the lake because the low-hanging clouds blocked their view, the two U.S. planes crashed into the water, and the death the results encouraging. American and French officials also declared that the Germans were considering a truce, and a high Austrian government official said procedure was quickly settled and some treaty clauses had already been discussed.

As the German planes and Allied flags flying from four flag poles on the roof were taken down for the first time in 10 years. A well-informed source said that once formalities had been concluded the German government would sign a statement by the leader of each delegation on the position of his Government with regard to the state treaty.

The German planes were drawn to the state treaty in view of the Villagers said they heard only two explosions, indicating the doomed planes may have collided in a swirl as they plunged through the clouds.

West, USSR to Meet On Berlin 'Baby Blockade'

BONN, Germany, Monday (UP)—The Allied High Commissioners have proposed a meeting with the Soviet High Commissioner, Mr. G. Pushkin, in Berlin on Saturday to discuss the

The proposal was contained in three identical notes dispatched by the Western High Commissioners this afternoon.

Their notes answered one from Mr. Puschkin last week in which he agreed to West German proposals for a conference on the Soviet Union's month-old road tax on trucks bringing supplies to isolated West Berlin. However, Mr. Puschkin insisted at the same time that this was a matter for direct discussion between the West and East German Governments.

BUENOS AIRES, Monday (Reuters). — President Peron of Argentina promised a mass rally here last night that if the people want the Church separated from the state. "they will be separated," he said.

Addressing the crowd from the balcony of Government House, the President said, "We are not going to let ourselves be

The exorbitant highway tax was imposed by the German Government as a condition for trading supplies to West Berlin. The West German and West Berlin Governments at once voted funds to reimburse the truckers for the tax until it was lifted.

World Problem 'Racial,' Says Justice Douglas

NEW YORK, Monday (UPI).—Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court said today the basic problem of the world is racial, not economic or political. He addressed the conclusion of the 1960 American Anti-Defamation League's 25th annual conference here.

"The world is not divided into two camps," he said. "It is divided into two groups: the white and the black."

Justice Douglas said the world is divided into two groups: the white and the black. He said the world is divided into two groups: the white and the black.

The U.S. has a "unique contribution to make in having demonstrated what a multi-racial nation can do," he said.

"The public policy in the U.S. are a real melting pot" and represent "a great demonstration to a world torn by linguistic and racial differences."

U.S. DECORATES THAI PRIME MINISTER

(WASHINGTON, Monday) — President Eisenhower today awarded the U.S. Legion of Merit to Premier Marshal Phang Pilorn Songram of Thailand for his aid in the recent Thai-Myan-marked meeting here.

"Yes!" shouted the crowd.

EX-MUFTI CAMPAIGNS DIAKARA

Mondy (UP)—The former Mufti of Jerusalem charged yesterday that Israel intends to expand their power to other Arab states. In a lecture here, Haj Amin el Hussein, said the "Palestine problem" concerns not only the Arab people but the entire Moslem world.

He appealed to all Indonesian Moslems to give moral, political, and material support to the Arab cause and called on Moslems the world over to create an Islamic bloc which would "liberhis "significant" contribution to the U.N. war effort in Korea. The U.S. wishes to honour "one who has done so much to defend liberty, freedom and human dignity in the whole world," he said.

When he landed here today for a four-day visit, Marshal Songgram told U.S. leaders. "You will find Thailand always at your side."
